- The vehicle is an experimental vehicle, a prototype, or another vehicle that could not reasonably be expected to comply with the provision.
- The vehicle —
- (i) was registered, or otherwise authorised, to be driven or towed on a road by the Director General (or an authority of another State or a Territory whose functions correspond to those of the Director General) before the commencement of the provision; and

- The vehicle has been constructed, equipped or adapted so as to enable it to be driven by a person with a physical disability who cannot safely drive a vehicle that has not been so constructed, equipped or adapted.
