

Support available for Communicator 5

**Tobii Dynavox and Smartbox have announced they will be merging. They have advised that they will not develop any new features or functionalities for Communicator 5. They will continue to support all users to the commitments they have made for at least the coming five years. If you have any questions or would like further information about the merger, please contact LinkAT or Tobii Dynavox.****

Communicator 5 was developed by Tobii Dynavox. It provides tools for communication, computer access, email, text messaging, telephony and environmental control units.

Support for programming and troubleshooting Communicator 5 is available. Ask your primary Speech Pathologist for help, or for further support:
